

2010 Informational Presentations

January 2010 – family counseling services for young people	Apryl Miller, Sky Center – family treatment services for young people and their families struggling with issues related to self-esteem, depression, suicide risk and behavior, grief and loss, involvement in drug or alcohol abuse, school performance, and family conflict.
February 2010 – PTSD and Returning Soldiers	Dr. Russell Brown, psychiatrist at the SF VA clinic; Joseph Duran, an outreach counselor, SF Veterans Center. DVD, “Welcome Home Soldier,” distributed by NAMI National.
March 2010 – PTSD and Veterans	Panel: Larry Lazarus, MD, psychiatrist and US Navy veteran; Janet Schreiber, Ph.D., Southwestern College Grief & Loss Dept Director & Suicide Survivors Support Group facilitator; Joseph Duran, an outreach counselor. Provided insights and answered questions regarding PTSD, TBI, signs to watch for pointing to possible suicide, and services available for veterans and their families.
April 2010 - “Minds Interrupted” DVD	DVD & panel discussion. One-hour program produced by PBS by the Fred Friendly Seminars. Michael Gzaskow, MD, psychiatrist at the County Adult Detention Center, and Joyce Burland, Ph.D., NAMI National Director of Education.
May 2010 – NAMI SF Annual Meeting	Elections results and annual report
June/July 2010 – Christus St. Vincent Hospital Report	Offsite special meeting for an overview of the hospital report presented by CSV President/CEO, Alex Valdez and Kathy Armijo Etre. Ardis Burst facilitated the meeting.
August 2010 – Summer Splash and volunteer appreciation party	Celebration held at Joyce Burland's home. Newsletter article focused on the hospital report follow-up.
September 2010 – Distress Calls & Law Enforcement	Panel: Gilbert Najar, Deputy Director with Law Enforcement Training Academy; William Pacheco, Santa Fe County Sheriff's Department and Ben Chavarria, SF City Police. Mary Justice, CARE Connection and Mark Boschelli, SF Community Guidance. Discussion on distress calls and law enforcement.
October 2010 – Mark Boschelli and PACT	Mark Boschelli, adult clinical director of the SF Community Guidance Center. PACT stands for Program of Assertive Community Treatment.
November 2010 – Judicial System and Mental Illness	Panel of experts discussing how people with mental illness navigate through the judicial system in Santa Fe. Panel: Judge Michael Vigil, Adult Treatment Court; Municipal Court Judge Ann Yalman, whose court oversees such offenses as shoplifting, petty misdemeanors, and DUI; Dr. Michael Gzaskow, involved in the jail diversion program; and Dr. Susan Cave, SF psychologist.
December 2010 – Holiday Party	Annual Holiday party for our membership. Held at Holy Faith Church in Santa Fe.